7.07.2. For each general holiday, the employer must pay the employee who is not a regular employee an indemnity equal to 1/20 of the wages earned during the 4 complete weeks of pay preceding the week of the holiday, excluding overtime hours.

O.C. 736-2005, s. 9.

7.07.3. Where the employee, who is not a regular employee, is obliged to work on one of the days mentioned in section 7.07.1, the employer, in addition to paying the employee the wage corresponding to the work performed on the holiday, is obliged to pay him the indemnity provided in section 7.07.2 or grant him a compensatory holiday of 1 day. In this case, the holiday must be taken within 3 weeks before or after that day, unless a collective agreement provides for a longer period.

O.C. 736-2005, s. 9.

7.08. Sections 7.01 and 7.07.1 do not apply to the employer, bound by a collective agreement within the meaning of the Labour Code (chapter C-27), who grants his employee at least the same number of paid holidays as those prescribed in those sections, provided he sends a list of the paid holidays he intends to grant, along with a copy of his collective agreement, to the Parity Committee before 1 May of each year.

O.C. 262-94, s. 10; O.C. 736-2005, s. 10.

8.02. An employee who, at the end of a qualifying period, has less than 1 year of uninterrupted service shall be entitled to a vacation leave equal to 1.5 days per month of service. 8.04.3. If an employee is absent owing to sickness, an organ or tissue donation for transplant, an accident, if the employee is the victim of domestic violence, sexual violence or of a criminal act or is on maternity or paternity leave during the reference year, and should that absence result in the reduction of that employee's annual leave indemnity, the employee is then entitled to an indemnity equal, as the case may be, to 3, 4, 5 or 6 times the weekly average of the wages earned during the period worked, according to the number of weeks to which the employee is entitled. An employee referred to in section 8.02 is entitled to that amount in proportion to the days of leave credited to the employee's account.

O.C. 887-2019, s.3.

- (3) is laid off due to a lack of work for a period exceeding 6 months;
- (4) is laid off due to a lack of work, and fails to report in to work within 48 hours following receipt of his recall by a registered or certified letter from his employer at his last known address.

8.10. Upon written agreement with the employer, the employee entitled to more than 2 weeks of annual vacation may waive that part of his vacation that exceeds 2 weeks, provided that he receives his complete annual vacation pay before leaving for his vacation or at any other time agreed on by the employee and the employer.

At the end of the 12 months following the end of a reference year, the employer must immediately pay the indemnity for the annual vacation to which the employee is entitled.

8.11. The annual vacation shall be taken within 12 months following the end of the qualifying period.

Notwithstanding the first paragraph, the employer may, at the request of the employee, allow the annual vacation to be taken, in whole or in part, during the reference year.

In addition, if, at the end of the 12 months following the end of a reference year, the employee is absent for one of the reasons set out in section 8.04.3 or is absent or on leave for family or parental matters, the employer may, at the request of the employee, defer the annual vacation to the following year. If the annual vacation is not so deferred, the employer must pay the indemnity for the annual vacation to which the employee is entitled.

9.02. The regular employee who cannot attend the funeral of one of his family members mentioned in section 9.01, because of the distance between his place of residence and the place of the funeral, does not lose his right to such leaves if he provides his employer with the proof that he must take part into traditional ceremonies of condolences following this death.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 9.02; O.C. 1810-89, s. 8.

9.03. An employee who is unable to avail himself of sections 9.01 or 9.02 may be absent from work:

- (1) for 2 days, without a loss in wages, on the occasion of the death or funeral of his spouse, child or the child of his spouse, his father, mother, brother or sister. He may also be absent from work for 3 more days on such occasion, without wages;

O.C. 1810-89, s. 8; O.C. 262-94, s. 15; O.C. 736-2005, s. 14.

9.05. The employee may be absent from work for 5 days on the birth of his child, the adoption of a child, or for a termination of pregnancy in or after the twentieth week of pregnancy. The first 2 days of absence are paid.

This leave may be taken as separate days at the request of the employee and cannot be taken later than 15 days after the child arrives at the residence of his father or mother or, if such is the case, the termination of the pregnancy.

The employee must notify the employer of his absence as soon as possible.

O.C. 262-94, s. 16; O.C. 736-2005, s. 15.

9.06. For the purposes of this section, the definition of relative refers to the definition set out in section 79.6.1 of the Act respecting labour standards (chapter N-1.1).

An employee may be absent from work for 10 days per year to fulfill obligations relating to the care, health or education of the employee's child or the child of the employee's spouse, or because of the state of health of a relative or a person for whom the employee acts as a caregiver, as attested by a professional working in the health and social services sector and governed by the Professional Code (chapter C-26).

The leave may be divided into days. A day may also be divided if the employer consents thereto.

If it is warranted, by the duration of the absence for instance, the employer may request that the employee provide a document attesting to the reasons for the absence except a medical certificate.

The employee must notify his employer of his absence as soon as possible and take the reasonable steps within his power to limit the leave and the duration of the leave.

Subject to the provisions of Division 12.00, the first 2 days of leave taken annually must be remunerated according to the following formula: $1/20$ of the wages earned during the 4 complete weeks of pay preceding the week of the leave, excluding overtime hours, and with any adjustments required in the case of division. The employee becomes entitled to such remuneration on being credited with 3 months of uninterrupted service, even if he was absent previously. However, the employer is not required to pay remuneration for more than 2 days of absence during the same calendar year, when the employee is absent from work for any of the reasons set out in this section or in section 9.09.

O.C. 262-94, s. 16; O.C. 736-2005, s. 16.

9.07. An employee may be absent from work, without pay, for a medical examination related to her pregnancy or for an examination related to her pregnancy and carried out by a midwife. The employee shall notify her employer as soon as possible of the time where she will be absent.

O.C. 262-94, s. 16; O.C. 352-2006, s. 8.

9.08. A pregnant employee shall be entitled to a maternity leave under the Act respecting labour standards (chapter N-1.1).

O.C. 262-94, s. 16.

9.09. The employee may be absent from work for a period of not more than 26 weeks over a period of 12 months for any of the reasons set out in section 79.1 of the Act respecting labour standards (chapter N-1.1).

The employee must notify the employer of his absence as soon as possible, giving the reasons for it. If it is warranted by the duration of the absence or its repetitive nature, for instance, the employer may request that the employee provide a document attesting to those reasons.

At the end of the 12 months following the end of a reference year, the employer must immediately pay the indemnity for the annual vacation to which the employee is entitled.

Subject to the provisions set out in Division 12.00, the right provided for in the sixth paragraph of section 9.06 applies in the same manner to absences authorized under this section. However, the employer is not required to pay remuneration for more than 2 days of absence during the same calendar year, when the employee is absent from work for any of the reasons set out in this section or in section 9.06, in the event that the accumulated days of leave are insufficient.

DIVISION 10.00 PAYMENT OF WAGES

10.01. Wages shall be paid to the employee in a sealed envelope, by cheque or by direct bank transfer at regular intervals not to exceed 2 weeks.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 10.01; O.C. 262-94, s. 17; O.C. 736-2005, s. 17; O.C. 1097-2011, s. 13.

10.02. The employer shall remit to the employee, at the same time as his wage, a pay slip containing the following information:

- (1) the employer's name;
- (2) the name of the employee;
- (3) the employee's hiring date;
- (4) the employee's classification;
- (5) the date of payment;
- (6) the work period corresponding to the payment;
- (7) the number of hours paid at the regular rate;
- (8) the number of paid overtime hours;
- (9) paid holidays and annual vacations;
- (10) the number of annual vacation days and sick leave hours paid during the period;
- (11) the total number of sick leave hours credits;
- (12) the hourly wage rate as well as the nature and amount of premiums;
- (13) the gross wage;
- (14) the nature and amount of deductions effected;

- (16) the amount of the employer's contribution to the group retirement plan during the period and the total contribution during the calendar year;
- (17) the amount of the employee's volunteer contribution to the group retirement plan that was deducted by the employer during the period and the total contribution during the calendar year.

In the case of a bank transfer, the pay slip must be remitted to the employee or mailed to him in the week following the bank transfer.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 10.02; O.C. 1810-89, s. 9; O.C. 262-94, s. 17; O.C. 1382-99, s. 19; O.C. 352-2006, s. 9; O.C. 1097-2011, s. 14.

10.03. No signing formality other than that establishing that the sum remitted to the employee corresponds to the net wages indicated on the employee's pay slip may be required upon payment of the wages.

Acceptance of a pay slip by an employee does not entail renunciation of the payment of all or part of the wages that are due to the employee.

An employer may make deductions from wages only when compelled by law, regulation, court order or collective agreement, or under the Decree or a compulsory supplemental pension plan, or where authorized in a writing by the employee for a specific purpose mentioned in the writing.

The employee may cancel such authorization at any time, except when it concerns membership in a group insurance plan or in a supplemental pension plan. The employer remits the sums so withheld to their intended recipient.

10.04 An employer cannot require an amount of money from an employee to pay for expenses related to the operations and mandatory employment-related costs of the enterprise.

O.C. 262-94, s. 17; O.C. 1097-2011, s. 15.

DIVISION 11.00 SPECIAL CLOTHING

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, Div. 11.00; O.C. 1097-2011, s. 16.

11.01. When an employer requires an employee to wear special clothing, it must be supplied by the employer. The employer does not replace the special clothing unless the employee gives back the special clothing already supplied, otherwise the replacement is paid by the employee.

Where required for the tasks, the employer provides adapted equipment, including protective footwear, stripping boots or shoe cover. The employer must pay the cost of adapted equipment and replace it, if necessary.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 11.01; O.C. 1097-2011, s. 17.

11.02. When an employee quits his employment, the employee must return the special clothing and adapted equipment that was supplied to him or her.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 11.02; O.C. 1097-2011, s. 18.

11.03. The cleaning and repair of special clothing is at the employee's expense.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 11.03; O.C. 1097-2011, s. 19.

DIVISION 11.100 OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

11.101 The duration of use of a backpack vacuum cleaner is limited to a maximum of 3 hours per working day, but cannot exceed more than 2 consecutive hours. When the use of a backpack vacuum cleaner exceeds 2 hours in a working day, the employee must interrupt the task for a period of at least 60 consecutive minutes.

DIVISION 12.00 SICK LEAVE

12.01. A regular employee cumulates at each pay period a credit of sick leave hours equal to 2.44% of the hours paid, excluding vacations.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 12.01; O.C. 1810-89, s. 10; O.C. 262-94, s. 18.

12.02. Sick leave hour credits are cumulative from year to year. On 31 October of each year, the employer shall establish the total credits of sick leave hours for each employee.

No later than 30 November of each year, the employer shall inform each employee of the following in writing, with a copy to the Parity Committee:

- (1) the total sick leave hours to the employee's credit;
- (2) the maximum number of cumulative hours of the employee;
- (3) the amount payable for excess hours, if applicable.

The employee who, on 31 October of a given year, has a credit of sick leave hours exceeding the maximum number of cumulative hours shall receive from the employer, no later than 10 December, the pay for excess hours at his usual rate.

For the purposes of this section, the maximum number of cumulative hours shall be equal to 60% of all hours paid during the last 4 weeks of work by the employee prior to 31 October. In the case of an employee whose regular schedule is 6 days per week, the percentage shall be equal to 50%.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 12.02; O.C. 1842-82, s. 3; O.C. 1810-89, s. 10; O.C. 262-94, s. 18.

12.02.1. The indemnities paid under the sixth paragraph of section 9.06 or the third paragraph of section 9.09 are deducted from the employee's accumulated leave hour credits.

However, if the indemnities are paid to the employee when he has not yet acquired regular status, or when the balance of his leave credit is insufficient or zero, they are deducted from the leave hour credit subsequently accumulated by the employee.

Despite the foregoing, no employer may require or obtain by any other means the reimbursement of the indemnities paid to the employee during the year under the sixth paragraph of section 9.06 or the third paragraph of section 9.09 when the employee has not yet acquired regular status, or when the balance of his leave credit is insufficient or zero, on the ground that the indemnities could not be reimbursed under the second paragraph of this section.

12.03. Sick leave with pay shall apply to the first day of absence due to illness. The employer may request a document attesting to the reasons for that absence before the employer pays the indemnity to the employee.

The employer may not, however, request the document referred to in the first paragraph for the first 3 periods of absence of duration of 3 consecutive days or less taken over a period of 12 months.

The employer will reimburse the employee for the fee charged to issue the document on the paycheck following the presentation of the receipt to the employer.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 12.03; O.C. 1842-82, s. 3.

12.04. In order to be entitled to sick leave with pay, the employee must inform his employer on the first day he is absent unless he is the victim of circumstances beyond his control.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 12.04; O.C. 1810-89, s. 11.

12.05. The employer is not required to pay the credits of sick leave hours upon the termination of an employee's employment, except in the following cases:

1. the employee is laid off for a period of 6 months or more and is not entitled to recall privileges under a collective agreement;
2. the employee is laid off, is entitled to recall privileges for a period of 6 months or more under a collective agreement and loses his or her seniority under the rules of that collective agreement; or
3. the employee is retiring and a record of employment indicating that reason is issued.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 12.05; O.C. 1810-89, s. 12.

DIVISION 13.00 NOTICE OF TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OR LAYOFF

13.01. The employer shall give written notice to an employee before terminating his contract of employment or laying him off for 6 months or more.

The notice shall be of 1 week if the employee is credited with less than 1 year of uninterrupted service, 2 weeks if he is credited with one to 5 years of uninterrupted service, 4 weeks if he is credited with 5 to 10 years of uninterrupted service and 8 weeks if he is credited with 10 or more years of uninterrupted service.

A notice of termination of employment given to an employee during the period when he is laid off is null.

This section does not deprive an employee of any right granted to him under the Act respecting labour standards (chapter N-1.1) or any other Act.

R.R.Q., 1981, c. D-2, r. 39, s. 13.01; O.C. 275-82, s. 7; O.C. 2526-85, s. 4; O.C. 262-94, s. 19.

13.02. Section 13.01 does not apply to an employee:

- (1) who has less than 3 months of uninterrupted service;
- (2) whose contract for a fixed term or for a specific undertaking expires;
- (3) who has committed a serious fault;
- (4) whose contract of employment is terminated or who is laid off as a result of a fortuitous event.

O.C. 262-94, s. 19.

13.03. An employer who does not give the notice prescribed by section 13.01 or who gives insufficient notice shall pay the employee a compensatory indemnity equal to his regular wage, excluding overtime, for a period equal to the period or remaining period covered by the notice to which he was entitled. The indemnity must be paid at the time the employment is terminated or at the time the employee is laid off for a period expected to last more than 6 months, or at the end of a period of 6 months for a layoff of indeterminate length, or a layoff expected to last less than 6 months but which exceeds that period.

O.C. 262-94, s. 19.

13.04. In the case of an employee who, under a collective agreement, is entitled to recall privileges for more than 6 months, the employer is bound to pay the compensatory indemnity only from the first of the following dates:

- (1) the expiry of the recall privileges of the employee;
- (2) 1 year after layoff.

The employee referred to in the first paragraph shall not be entitled to the compensatory indemnity:

- (1) if he is recalled before the date on which his employer is bound to pay the indemnity and if subsequently he works for a period equal to or longer than that of the notice prescribed in section 13.01;
- (2) if he is not recalled owing to a fortuitous event.

O.C. 262-94, s. 19.

DIVISION 14.00 TERM

14.01. This Decree remains in force until 1 November 2030. It is automatically renewed from year to year thereafter, unless one of the contracting parties opposes it by sending written notice to the Minister of Labour and to the other contracting party during the month of February of the year 2030 or during the month of February of any subsequent year.
